PHYSICIANS' SKIN REMEDY

Dr. Holmes, the well-known skin specialist, writes: "I am convinced that the D. D. D. Prescription is as much a specific for Scabies as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D. D. D. remedy for years. This soothing compound of oil of wintergreen and other healing ingredients gives instant relief the moment it is applied. It sinks through the pores, kills and throws off the gnawing disease germs, and quickly heals the inflamed tissue. All cases of skin disease, mild or violent, yield to this soothing liquid wash, the D. D. D. Prescription. All druggists sell D. D. D., 50c and $1.00. A generous trial bottle for only 25c. Come in and let us tell you about our money back guarantee that D. D. D. will do what is claimed. You will be the judge. Ask about D. D. D. Soap. Its steady use keeps the skin always healthy."

Last Week's Winners

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2, 1915.
Classified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

My Dear Sir—In glancing over your advertisement of "Thrifty Buyers" I noticed Amrein's, 1009 N. Y. Ave. N. W., and being fond of good things to eat, decided to stop out of my way to try it. "Home Baked Bread." I found it delicious and gladly recommended it to anyone who likes good bread. "The kind that mother made," to try "Amrein's Home Baked Bread." Something one can enjoy for its freshness, its wholesomeness, its purity and sweet. It's just the very kind of a loaf to make a meal complete. Yours truly,
1016 8th St. N. W. V. POLING.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2, 1915.
Classified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

Dear Sir—I sent my 5-piece parlor suit to the U. S. Upholstering Co., 426 10th St. N. W., to be reupholstered. They re-covered it and polished it so nicely that I hardly recognized it. I would advise every one to have their work done there. Yours truly,
1417 8th St. N. W. MISS E. M. PITRO.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2, 1915.
Classified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

Dear Sir—When I started laying my carpets this fall I found two were not in as good condition as I had thought. Immediately I thought of Danahill & Davis, having seen their ad, several times in The Sunday Times. I called them up and had them clean my carpets, and I am more than pleased with the work. Heartily recommending Danahill & Davis, 1111 N. W. as expert, reasonable carpet cleaners, I am yours truly,
1 S. P.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1, 1915.
Classified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

Dear Sir—Yesterday while reading The Times, I noticed an advertisement for Printer Darling. This reminded me that I had a small rush job of printing to have done. I turned to the reliability of Times advertisers. I gave Darling the job, and am glad to say results more than justified my confidence. Now Darling has another satisfied customer. Yours truly,
J. D. IRVING.
